FEVER-TREE

MIX with the BEST

Strawberry & Elderflower Collins

ELDERFLOWER TONIC WATER

Strawberries add a sharp sweetness to this classic gin cocktail. They also add a beautiful blush of color. When the bright leafy mint and flowery essence of elderflower chime in, you're treated to a long, refreshing drink with all the aromas, tones and textures of an English country garden.

DIFFICULTY: 2

GLASSWARE: PITCHER

INGREDIENTS

SERVES 1

Fever-Tree Elderflower Tonic Water	22 oz
Premium Gin	7 oz
Lemons	4
Strawberries	4
Large Mint Sprig	1

METHOD

Step One: Add strawberries to pitcher and pour in gin.

Step Two: Squeeze over the lemon quarters, then drop them into the pitcher.

Step Three: . Stir well and leave for 10 minutes.

Step Four: Fill the pitcher three-quarters full with ice cubes.

Step Five: Top off with the tonic water

Step Six: Garnish with a mint sprig. Serve with a few extra strawberry slices in each glass.

If you don't have any fresh strawberries, or you're in a bit of a hurry, you could add a fruit-flavored liqueur instead to give flavor and color to this cocktail. Add 2 oz of your favorite liqueur and reduce the gin quantity to 5 oz.
